The Course

POSTPONED

The exam was originally designed to assist members without a life science degree to gain Registered Member (RICR) status. Although this is still the case, the exam is now predominantly used to assist our members continuing professional development, as the exam demonstrates a candidates' broad knowledge of the essential aspects of clinical research.

Learning Objectives

Certificate

This may be taken once the theory and basic principles of clinical research are acquired. This exam consists of 60 Multiple Choice Questions. If the certificate exam is booked at the same time as The Introduction to Clinical Trials and Clinical Trial Practice course candidates will qualify for a discounted fee of £50.

Pre-Course Questionnaire - To be completed by all delegates

By Car: Join the A404 either via at J5 of the M40, or J8/9 of the M4. Follow the A404 until you reach J9A signposted to Maidenhead/Reading. Turn right at the first roundabout, then continue on that road, going straight across any subsequent roundabouts. Take the second right past the airfield. If you reach the village, you've gone too far.

Once inside Grove Park, turn left at the first mini roundabout, then right at the T junction. Turn right at the red brick building, and we are in the one furthest from the road. Park in the large car park on your right. Please contact the Secretariat using the buzzer by the door - type in 12 and then press the small bell.

By Train: The nearest station is Maidenhead, located on the Paddington - Reading line. We recommend getting a taxi from the station, as bus routes are sporadic. It should take roughly 15 minutes.

The Small Print

As a matter of policy we do not issue electronic copies of the slides used.

All ICR materials are copyrighted.

All delegates receive a delegate book.

Payment must be received in advance of a training course commencing. The ICR has the right to refuse entry for non-payment. Payment by invoice must be settled within 14 days from the date of invoice.

We understand that occasionally circumstances may change and that you will be unable to attend your chosen course. Notification of cancellation must be made in writing. If you cancel more than 14 days prior to the event, we will refund the course less £50 to cover administration costs. If you cancel within 14 days, no refund will be payable, but we will allow you to transfer to another course of your choice.

We will accept a change of delegate at any time without you incurring a penalty. The Institute of Clinical Research reserves the right to cancel any course that is under-subscribed but will give you 7 days notice in writing and will refund your course fees without any liability for any consequential or indirect loss.

At anytime, you may transfer to the same course within 12 months, or to another course of your choice within 6 months; a £25 administration fee will be charged for such transfers.

We may also need to change the venue but will give you 7 days notice in writing of the new location.

Programmes as published are correct, however due to circumstances beyond our control, trainers, speakers and/or the programme may need to be altered occasionally.

The ICR will work with the venue catering team and endeavour to accommodate specific dietary requirements e.g. Vegetarian/Vegan/Gluten Free – however it is not possible to cover all possible requests for dietary preferences.
